1. Location.

25X1

The Chinoïn Factory is located in Budapest IV (Újpest) and is bounded by Szabad-sígharcosok, Tó, Amszterdam, Parisi, Brüsszeli, Katona József, and Virág Streets. (See Annex 1).

2. Buildings and Entrances.

- a. North of Brüsszeli Street there is a large brick tower (for a rough sketch of it see Annex 2) of recent construction. It is as high as the chimney, that is approximately 130 feet. The chimney, a landmark for many years, is south of Tó Street.
- b. Approximately one third of the buildings are three or four stories high and two thirds are one-story structures with gabled (inverted "V") roofs.
- c. The main entrance is at Tó Street 1-3. The freight entrance is located on Brüsszeli Street and an industrial spur from the main railroad (Eszaki, i.e. northern junction) also enters the area across this road.

3. Security.

The area is surrounded by a concrete wall approximately 6 ft. high, topped with iron spikes curved inwards at the ends. There are seven or eight watchtowers manned by factory guards.

4. Production.

The main products of the factory are pharmaceuticals (including penicillin), insecticides, artificial fertilizers, sulphuric acid, and veterinary articles.

5. Remarks.

No individuals in military uniform were observed anywhere near the area, nor was
